

Gyan Ganga International School Celebrated 67th Republic Day

Gyan Ganga International School celebrated 67th Republic Day with the feeling of true patriotism. The day was celebrated with the mark of the transition of India from a British Dominion to a Republican on January 26, 1950 and the adoption of the Constitution of India.

The celebration was graced with the presence of distinguished dignitaries who fortified the occasion with their graceful presence. Chairperson Gyan Ganga Group of Institution Hon'ble D. C. Jain was present as the Chief Guest of the day, Shri Rajneet Jain Managing Director, Shri Nitin Jain Executive Director, Shri Baritesh Bharill Secretary, Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel School Principal were present for the flag hoisting ceremony which was followed by the National Anthem and a vibrant March Past performed by the students of all the four houses, NCC cadets and the students of Scout and Guide.

The day was decorated with the number of cultural programme which depicted the real essence of struggle and turmoil's faced by the great leaders and martyrs of our country. The programs such as PT drill by juniors' students, Band Show, Group Song and the Orchestra Show based on patriotic songs sparked the zeal and enthusiasm among the youth to be a true nationalist.

In the same sequence the Chief Guest of the day address the gathering and enlightened the vision of young generation about the true struggle and sacrifices which were made by the leaders and soldiers of our motherland. He emphasized on the need of safeguarding our nation and our freedom for foreign invasions and working round the clock for the development of our nation.

Speaking on the occasion school Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel expressed his gratitude towards the Chief Guest and various guests of the day. He familiarized the students about the importance of the day and also emphasized on the duties and responsibilities of each and everyone towards their motherland.