

70th Independence Day Celebrated at GGIS

On 15th August 2016 Monday 70th Independence Day was celebrated at Gyan Ganga International School with great ultranationalist patriot feelings. The main grandees and luminaries who graced the occasion were chairperson of Gyan Ganga Group of Institution Shri D.C. Jain, Executive Director Dr. Nitin Jain, Managing Director Dr. Rajneet Jain, School Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel and other distinguished members of management.

The programme started with the hoisting of tri colour flag which was followed by National Anthem and heart throbbing pageantry which was displayed by students of all the four houses. In the same sequence the celebration of the day was decorated with no. of cultural programme that conveyed a strong message that said to save the most endangered species of tiger our national animal, Save Girl Child, uproot the corruption the incurable disease that can only removed not cured. There were many other cultural presentations by the students that displayed the true feeling of patriotism through their gestures and expressions. Everyone in the audience applauded the performance of the students and also the message that enlighten the spark of flame in every Indian to be a real patriot.

Speaking on the occasion school Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel conveyed a message remembering and saluting the martyrs on this nation but by protecting and preserving every bit of our motherland and the precious gift of independence that was given to us by our forefathers and the freedom fighters. He also expressed his heartfelt thanks and gratitude to all the members of management committee and the chief guest of the day for being the part of this celebration and motivating the students. He also thanked the teachers, all teaching & non-teaching staff members and parents of students who made the celebration a grand success.