

Janmashtmi Celebration at GGIS

On 24th August 2016 Wednesday, the students of pre-primary and primary section of Gyan Ganga International School celebrated Krishna Janmashtmi in the auditorium of school 'Pravaha'. This celebration was solely for tiny-tots of GGIS who dressed up themselves in the get-ups of Lord Krishna, Radha, Meera and so on.

The program started with the Pujan Ceremony in which Lord Krishna the avatar of Lord Vishnu was praised. Deity of Lord Krishna was placed on cradle and there were decoration of Jhakies that displayed the birth of Lord Krishna. School Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel graced the occasion with his graceful presence.

The program included no. of cultural presentation such as Ramp Modeling of the students dressed up in the costumes of Radha and Krishna, Solo Dances, Solo songs, reciting of Shloks and Bhajans and the main attraction and demanded presentation was Mutki-Phod Competition. The whole environment of Gyan Ganga was filled with the melodious songs of Lord Krishna and in the colors of Bhakti. Students from Nursery to Class 3rd became the integral part of this celebration and enjoyed every bit of it.

At the end school Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel acknowledged the participants for their hard work and congratulated the winners of all the competitions such as- best dress up in Krishna and Radha, best solo dance performance, solo song, reciting of Shloks and Bhajans, and above all the group who succeeded in breaking the Dahi-Handi . He encouraged the winners for their outstanding performance with the distribution of prizes in the prize distribution ceremony. He also expressed his heartfelt thanks to the group of teachers who were involved in this celebration for making the up-coming generation aware about the culture and traditions of our motherland through such activities.