

STUDENTS OF GGIS VISITED ART FESTIVAL

On 18th October Students of Gyan Ganga International School Witnessed the glorious journey of free fighters of Mahakaushal region through a power point presentation which was showcased by the organizers of Art Festival at Golbazaar. This art festival is organized by Ratna Kala Kendra, a unit of the Mahakaushal Shaheed Smarak Trust which was founded in September 2015, with a vision to preserve and promote Art & Culture in Jabalpur. It was started in the memory of Ratna Kumari Devi, daughter of Seth Govinddasji, a great poetess and literary figure of her time.

The main attractions of this Art festival are the corners that displayed handicrafts, live music, theatre, handmade Jewellery, ethnic wear, children's corner etc. Students from classes 6th to 8th and group of Fine Arts Club got this golden opportunity to visit the festival and appreciate the hard work and their contribution of freedom fighters of Mahakaushal region.

No: of teachers accompanied this group for the visit. During their visit students were made aware about various events, happenings and famous freedom fighters through a short PPT presentation. In the same sequence they were asked questions related to the same in the form quiz rounds. All the students participated in the quiz enthusiastically. Akash Anand Shrivastava, Purvi Nandwana, Harsh Ranjan and Anushka Soni won the prizes as they answered the questions correctly.

On their way back to school students and teachers thanked and expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the school Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel and the management for honouring them and providing them a platform where they came to know about the freedom fighters of Mahakaushal and their incredible contribution in free struggle.