

Students of GGIS shinned out on the huge Global Youth Forum

Jabalpur. On 12th Nov 2016 Gyan Ganga International School Jabalpur organized the first round of the “Speaker of the Year” Global Youth Forum 2016 in collaboration with Maverik Ventures powered by Floweret Activity House in its lush green campus.

The programme was organized in the Auditorium ‘Pravaha’ under the direction of Maverik Ventures powered by Floweret Activity House’s Director Mrs. Nupur Agrawal and Ideal Abacus Academy’s Director Mrs. Pratiksha Yadav. School Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel was the guest in the opening ceremony. The interview session was conducted by Ms. Aditi Mishra and Mr. Abhishek Sharma and the Speak Shoot was conducted by Mr. Prabhjot Singh and Ms. Tanisha Agrawal.

This year the theme of the forum was “The Great Indian Heritage”. The aim of the forum is to do inclusive growth of the students as a speaker as it brings children from different strata’s of the society under one roof and motivate them to express their views more effectively and efficiently.

Students from some of the top schools of Jabalpur participated in the forum. Schools that contributed and took initiatives in grooming the students were- Gyan Ganga International school Jabalpur, Christ Church Girls, St. Joseph’s Convent, St. Xavier, St. Aloysius, Sadar, Stemfield Int School, Satya Prakash Pub School etc. who participated in the forum and left an impact.

The students participated and shared their views, ideas, knowledge, problems and their solutions to reignite the interest of the youth in their cultural heritage. They also shared solutions how to preserve their Heritage of India, their personal Interview activity, wherein they were found engaged in a conversation regarding present scenario. This was followed by the Speak shoot activity in which they presented their ideas in front of the camera regarding preserving our Rich culture and Heritage.

It was tremendous to witness initiatives, creativity and enthusiasm, with which every child approached the urgent need of preserving our heritage.

Students witnessed a motivational session with school Principal Dr. Rajesh K Chandel as well. Further in the forum the best speakers will be shortlisted for the finals wherein finalists from multiple states of the country will discuss debate and emphasizes upon the role of students in Preserving the Heritage of the Country.

In the end participants were appreciated for their hard work and their confidence in which they presented the topic. The forum proved truly to be a platform for the young students and youth to express their views and shape the world of tomorrow.

Students of Gyan Ganga Int School Tarini Pathak, Priya Yadav, Shivani Malwi, Akshat Mishra & Velika Dhaneshwar, from St. Xavier School Pragya Richa Tiwari & Rudra Shankar Shukla from St. Aloysius School were awarded with the amazing Performance trophies in order to facilitate innovative ideas that were put forward.
