

Social gathering of gyanties with elderly people at Old Age Home

On 10 th December 2016 management of Gyan Ganga International School organized another trip under the Social Interaction Educational Trip for class VIII students to the Old Age Home, Shastri Nagar, Tilwara Road, Near Medical College, Jabalpur.

Students of class-VIII along with their teachers visited the Old Age Home and interacted with the elderly peoples. With the presentation of cultural programme such as – funny dance, songs, poems related to old people brought a smile on the faces of these experienced groups of the society. They also became emotional on hearing the speeches given by the students.

The students also made the old grandparents share their views and feelings make their heavy hearts light by speaking and presenting their emotions.

Students distributed blankets, fruits, medicines and eatables to these elderly people. Students and teachers who visited were moved by seeing these old people. They also understood and realized the importance of old grandparents and parents in their life and promised to themselves that they will become the true supporters and caretakers of their parents and grandparents. They also promised to become the responsible citizens of the country by not promoting any more old age homes to set.

School Principal Dr. Rajesh Kumar Chandel appreciated the students and teachers for their positive approach towards this social cause. He also emphasized the importance of such educational trips that would definitely bring hostlic development in the youth.

All who visited the old age home thanked the management and school principal for providing them such an opportunity and a platform to make the youth aware and realize the importance of their parents and grandparents.
